

How to Choose the Perfect Vibe

Consult this checklist to help you get the most pleasure from your new “friend”:

Function*. Start by asking yourself how you plan to use the toy: overall vulva, clitoris, G-spot, anally, or more?

Use*. Are you planning to enjoy it on your own, or with someone very special?

Location*. On your way to work, on business trips, or simply after a long day, in your own tub or bed?

Noise*. Thin walls? Nosy neighbors? Curious roommates? Controlling parents? Go for quiet.

Portability*. Do you want a toy that slips discreetly into your purse or backpack, or a plug-in model that mostly stays home?

Design*. Do you like the look and texture of a real penis, or prefer a completely different appearance?

Frequency*. Do you like slow or fast, deep or shallow? Get your hands on different units to see how they feel.

Price*. Aren't you worth a few extra dollars for all the free orgasms you're going to enjoy? Don't skimp on pleasure-get what will satisfy you!
